Weapons

- ✦ Weapons sold must be suitable to the period (no functioning gunpowder-based weaponry).
- ✦ The merchant is responsible for meeting all Federal, State and Local regulations regarding the sale of weapons, including any registration and pre-sale checks.
- ✦ All weapons must be peace-tied at point of sale (no exceptions), merchants are responsible for providing peace ties; if it is not possible to peace tie the weapon, the merchant must send an escort to carry the weapon out the front gate before transferring it to the customer or deliver to the front gate, for pickup by the patron at the end of the day.
- ✦ If the last options are chosen, the merchant is responsible for proper "name tagging" for identification. Weapons sellers must submit weapons sellers' agreement with their application.

This agreement will become part of the contract between the merchant participant and RSL, along with the Merchant Information document and Application. In signing this agreement, you agree to abide by ALL rules and conditions of the Greater St. Louis Renaissance Faire at Wentzville concerning weapons.
